

RAF Tail Gunner Pilot

From Ella Farrell

This is my Grandfather Philip Lazarus. He was a RAF (Royal Air Force) Tail Gunner Pilot. He fought in North Africa and Italy during WW2. He was shot down in Italy and was hidden by locals who saved him from being sent to a concentration camp because he was Jewish. He safely came home to Cape Town, South Africa after the war and that is where he met and married my grandmother. The rest is history.