

VE Day 1945

Many were celebrating at home but Sub-Lieutenant Peter Brooks RNVR and the crew of his LCI (Landing Craft Infantry) were in the far east carrying on the war against Japan. My father was 20 at the time, he is in the back row of the picture, second from the right.

