

War memorabilia

From Melanie Ainsworth

My father was needed at the car manufacturing plant where he was the works manager. He volunteered to act as a firefighter. This is just a very small part of the collection we have. Much more to follow - we have letters from the trenches, so many photographs. Many times, I have asked myself why I am keeping all this 'stuff' but it's lovely to look through it every now and again!