In the big, green wood, was an owl and a fox.

The owl and fox wished to be king. All of the animals gathered together to pick a king.

"I will be the best king, as I am strong and clever. I am better than the owl. You cannot pick him!" yelled the fox.

"I can swoop and look and see all the town from up high," went the owl. "Let me be king."

The animals had to pick a king. It was hard. A shower of rain fell from up high. With the shower, was a verdict.

The owl was going to be king, as he did not boast too much. He was given a crown and a gown. The animals all bowed to him.

A contest was put on by the Queen, in spring. The snail and the dog with a tail, went to the start mark.

The aim was not to fail but to finish first. The main road was straight but full of bumps.

Then, the rain and hail fell from up high. The road was wet.

The dog fell on a nail stuck in the road. He was hurt and had to stop.

The snail felt bad. He went to pick up the dog. The dog was in pain. The snail put the dog on his shell

The train took them to the end of a rail track. They went to the finish together.
